Anti Ragging policy

In accordance with UGC regulations, the College Anti Ragging Committee was established to combat the threat of ragging in higher education institutions.

As a result, the Committee's duties include monitoring adherence to the Anti-Ragging Regulations, raising public awareness of the issue, and investigating complaints.

Procedure/Policy adopted by the committee :

A person who experiences wrongdoing (ragging) has two ways to contact the committee.

Online: Through the college website, students can complete the online form.

Official: Students can obtain the form from the ICC presiding officer or download it from the college website. They can then fill it out and turn it in to the committee.

After reviewing a complaint, the Committee will advise appropriate action to be taken in accordance with the university's circular.

Nationwide toll free 24 X 7 anti-ragging helpline 1800-180-5522.
